

Ukulele:

Saturday 4.00-5.30pm

“Intermediate/advanced Ukulele”

Tutor: George Bonner

Description

Want to take your ukelele playing to the next level then in this workshop George will show you what is possible across various styles. You know your way around the ukulele and want to move on and you may have already been to Karina's Heavy Metal Ukulele workshop on Friday which George will build on.

George Bonner

He is an accomplished ukulele teacher spending much of the year on cruise ships teaching a variety of standards all over the world and experienced at running jam sessions with mixed standards of players. When around he is based at Farringdon ukulele group which meets weekly on Tuesday mornings and are always looking for new members. He will cover the whole gambit over the week end with a beginner, then intermediate workshop followed by a full Jam session on Sunday, by which time you will have gone from a novice to confident you know what you are doing, getting tunes out of your ukulele and ready to join a local group.
