“Washboard, paper & spoons.”

Tutor: Sarah Lambert-Gates & Norman Guiver

Description

Bring anything you have that makes a noise and see how you can contribute to just having fun with music. You will need two flat handled dessert spoons for the technical stuff and a sense of humour for the rest. Bring the kids and be prepared to clean up afterwards.

Sarah Lambert-Gates

Sarah is better known by her alter-ego Dolly of Dolly and the Clothespegs regulars at previous Bunkfests so check out the fringe. She is also an archaeologist, which inspires her songs. She'll be flying back early from a dig on Islay to play on the Fringe so let's hope there are no freak Hebridean weather to thwart her appearance. Daughter of the Water is a gentle and floaty neo-medieval time-travelling compilation of original music: daughterofthewater.uk, She also accompanies her songs on banjo and been spotted playing spoons in The Port Charlotte Hotel folk sessions on the Isle of Islay on many occasions. www.dollyandtheclothespegs.bandcamp.com/, www.daughterofthewater.bandcamp.com/
