

Jam session:

Saturday 6.00-9.00

“Old Time Slow jam”

Tutor: Alan Pridgeon

Description

For those new to jam sessions Alan will explain the protocols then lead the session playing through American Old Time tunes at a slower than normal tempo to help you become confident to attend one of the many sessions available around the country.

Jams like this one are held to both encourage new players to join in and learn and to help advanced players to hone their technique.

Tutor

Alan Pridgeon is chairman of Friends of American Old Time Music and Dance which is a UK organisation set up in 1993 to support and further the promotion and performance of American old-time music in the UK. The club organises an annual festival, spring and summer camps, a residential picking and learning weekend and publishes a quarterly colour magazine.
