“The Art of Storytelling”

Tutor: Cindy Zudys

Description

The workshop will look at the power of live storytelling as well as some of the pitfalls & will give participants an opportunity to experiment with telling their own stories.

Cindy Zudys

Cindy is a professional storyteller who has worked all over the country telling original stories & holding workshops. She is the author of New Tales from an Old Land, an anthology of her own stories which have a strong sense of place, rooted in the beautiful & varied landscapes of our country. Cindy believes that stories are a vital part of human experience & that storytelling like live music is more important than ever in a society that relies increasingly on technology & mechanisation.
