““The Raccoon from Rangoon””

Tutor: Robert Alexander

Description

Robert will read from a giant-sized version of the book, bringing the illustrations to life on a big scale. Children will learn fun dance moves to the music, sing along with Robert, and then dive into their imaginations to create their own characters and story ideas in a playful mini writing workshop.

Rob Alexander

He is an exciting new voice in children’s literature and music. His debut rhyming picture book, The Raccoon from Rangoon, illustrated by Andrew S. Gray, is accompanied by a foot tapping, paw clapping, tail wagging and wing flapping swing/jazz track, “I Am Raccoon” performed by Robert and the incredibly talented Harry Greene, a regular at Ronnie Scott’s and the 606 Club. Listen here or find him on Faceup and Instagram and get him to autograph your copy for your kid’s library. www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fi-qrnEf1a8
