Stories: “Interwoven tunes and tales”

Sunday 3.30- 4.30pm

DONNELLY & SOUTH PRESENT

OVERLAPPING STORIES - TALES AND TUNES, SONGS AND STORIES, THAT INTERWEAVE AND OVERLAP, CREATING A RICH ENCHANTING TAPESTRY OF WORDS, MUSIC AND WONDER.

Renowned contemporary folk duo Keith Donnelly and Lauren South have woven together the perfect combination of Storytelling and Song, to bring you their brand new workshop/show ‘OVERLAPPING STORIES’.

Each tune and tale are beautifully crafted ‘Standalone’ pieces. But each also interweaves and overlaps with the others to produce something truly magical.

There are tales of powerful Wizards (‘Speak of the ‘Devil’ and ‘The 6 Sisters’), songs of strange enchanted Otherworlds (‘The Well at the World’s End’ and ‘Tir na nOg) and stories and songs about Ghostly goings on (‘The Stolen Bow’ and ‘Only When The Moon...’)

Overlapping Stories - a brilliantly original Story/Song set for Storytelling Aficionados and those new to the genre alike.
